SUPPLEMENT

1. Officials of the Volkssolidarität throughout the Russian Zone are recruiting volunteers for the Greek Partisan Movement. The campaign is supported by the SMA which, however, does not appear officially in this connection. Enlistments are received by the Kommandatur.
2. Volkssolidarität receives instructions from the SED and not directly from the SMA.
3. There have been renewed reports of the forced recruiting of German doctors and the requisitioning of surgical instruments. This is being done on an individual basis so that the program will not resemble a mass deportation. Doctors are to be sent via Prague, Vienna, and Budapest to Belgrade. they are intended for service in Greece.
4. some laborers who were recruited this spring for Oder River bridge work have been sent to Greece and are now fighting for the Partisans.
